

Mobilizing and supporting teacher leaders to have a lasting impact in their schools

The Problem

Teachers leave urban schools due to a lack of meaningful leadership opportunities

Our Solution

By empowering teachers to take on leadership roles, schools can activate the power of this untapped resource. Our answer is simple: we invest in teachers leaders so they can make a more profound impact in their schools and with students

Mobilize Program

Teachers from across the city come together to hear from renowned speakers and collaborate around new ideas in education.

Support Program

Teachers identify an area of need for their school and with the help of 1-on-1 coaching, the teacher leads a group of their colleagues to enact change.
